That to if he Beats Corbett in Four Round To-morrow Night,

James Corbett, the young Californian, who vanquished Jake Kilrain so easily at New Orleans, and who will meet Dominick McCaffrey in a four-round go at the Fifth Avenue Casino. Brooklyn, to-morrow night, is a splendid specimen of physical manhood, and wholly unlike any fighter that has ever been seen here so far as appearance and manner go, But 23 years of age, over 6 feet high, wonderfully elever and quick, be has a great future.

Corbett does not like the way John L. Sulli-Van has talked regarding him, and called at EXPERIENCED OPERATOR on W. & W. machine. THE SUN office last night to say that if Sullivan would appear to-morrow night at the Casino and beat him in four rounds he could have the and beat him in four rounds he could have the entire gate receipts. The Californian says he told Sullvan's friends two weeks ago that he was willing to meet the champion, but that they must sact quickly, as he had to return to San Francisco on Wednesday next. So far nothing but talk has emanated from Sullivan. Said Corbett. and if he could be here on Monday night it would please me to death. The youngster says he has the highest regard for Bullivan's prowess as a lighter, and does not aspire to championship honors himself for a year or so, when he will be stronger and heavier. However, he doesn't like the champion's tone.

for. However, he doesn't has the testing stone.

Corbett was presented with an elegant walking stick yesterday by Prof. Mike Denovan and the pupils of the New York Athletic Club, the silver handle bearing a suitable inscription.

Among those who will spar at the Casino tomorrow pight are Prof. Mike Donovan, Ed Conpors, Frank Bosworth, Tommy Green, Johnny Files, George Reynolds, and Jack Hopper, Corbett and McCaffrey will wind up at 10 o'clock sharp.

JIGGING ON THE TABLE.

Mrs. Barry's a Girl Vet at 65 and Mr. Me-Conigle's Got a New Boncen.

Old-fashioned Irish country dancing to GOOD DRESSMAKERS on misses' suits: steady work by piece or week 120 West 23d st. the inspiriting melody of pipes and the hearty encouragement of Irish voices filled a big room in Fythagoras Hall last night with folks interested in Celtic amusements. The Francis X. Hennessy Association gave the entertainment. The dancing was done on a tall wide-topped table in the middle of the room. Hornpipes, reels, and jiss were rattled off with a grace and abandon that provoked unlimited enthusiasm. Mrs. M. Barry, aged 65. capturest the first prize, incidentally showing a black-stockinged ankle that any girl would be proud of, and exhibiting a liveliness worthy of a lass of 16. Mrs. O'Brien, an octogenarian lilter, used her somewhat feeble voice with great effect in numming a liveliness worthy of a lass of 16. Mrs. O'Brien, an octogenarian lilter, used her somewhat feeble voice with great effect in numming a live goose, whose ambition to compete with the pipers caused it to be put in the cellar. Hornpiper McConigle got a forty-pound pig for grace and continuity in heel-and-toe evolutions. Four young Irishmen, John J. Sullivan won the prize. room in Pythagoras Hall last night with folks

Also the new and direct method of arresting absormal irinary discharges, and restoring to the impotent their urinary discharges and restoring to the impotent their departed manly vigot. Successful where All Else has Falled. The La Salle Method and

Its Advantages.

Our preparations are called "The La Salle Remedies," from the fact that we procured the original formula of the celebrated Dr. La Salle Remedies," from the fact that we procured the original formula of the celebrated Dr. La Salle of Faris, under grazantee that should we tithis proper to introduce at any time that should we tithis proper to introduce at any time under that title.

Some years any Dr. La Salle conceived the idea of treating nervous and seminal diseases by rectal medication, believing he would gain the following advantages: cation, believing he would gain the following advan-lares: (i.) Application of the drugs directly to the seat of the diseases. (1.) Application of the drugs directly to the seat of the diseases.

(2.) Avoidance of digestion and neutralisation of the active medical agents, there being no atomach drugsting.

(3.) The patient can cure himself at very little expense without any physician.

(4.) Their use requires no change of dist or of the ordinary pursuits of file.

(5.) They are absolutely harmless.

(6.) Close approach to the lower apertures of emergence of the apinal nerves from the vertebral column, and hence case of penetrating to the nervous fluid and matter of the brain and spinal cord.

Feeble men, whose strength is impaired will find agure and permanent cure in Dr. La Salle Boltus.

The word Bolus is Jatus name and manual legence.

The Ln Salle Bolus.

The word Bolus is a Latin name, and meanea large pill.

In the preparation of the La Salle Bolus we use the best carea butter for holding and preserving the various drugs, thus making their introduction a very easy matter.

They pass into the rectum with the most perfect ease,
by means of a little pressure from the finger.

This method of treatment leaves behind no traces to excite the curiosity of any one.
